

NATIONAL CONSUMER PROTECTION WEEK

National Consumer Protection Week
Public Service Messages for Radio/Television/Newspapers [Classified Sections]
For use between February 1 and February 6, 1999

Did you know that companies that do business by telephone can't ask you to pay for credit before you get it. This is National Consumer Protection Week. When it comes to credit, make it your business to know the rules and use the tools. For more information, contact the Federal Trade Commission at www.ftc.gov. This tip from [your organization] and [your radio station/newspaper].

Don't pay for a promise. It's illegal for companies doing business by phone to promise you a loan and ask you to pay for it before they deliver. This is National Consumer Protection Week. When it comes to credit, make it your business to know the rules and use the tools. For more information, contact the Federal Trade Commission at www.ftc.gov. This tip from [your organization] and [your radio station/newspaper].

Before you do business with a company, check it out with the Better Business Bureau. This is National Consumer Protection Week. When it comes to credit, make it your business to know the rules and use the tools. For more information, contact the Federal Trade Commission at www.ftc.gov. This tip from [your organization] and [your radio station/newspaper].

Federal law allows you to correct your credit report for free. This is National Consumer Protection Week. When it comes to credit, make it your business to know the rules and use the tools. For more information, contact the Federal Trade Commission at www.ftc.gov. This tip from [your organization] and [your radio station/newspaper].

Federal law allows you to correct your credit report for free. Credit repair clinics that do business by phone cannot ask for or receive payment until six months after they perform their services. When it comes to credit, make it your business to know the rules and use the tools. For more information, contact the Federal Trade Commission at www.ftc.gov. This tip from [your organization] and [your radio station/newspaper].