

Ethnic Media Services & the Federal Trade Commission invite you to an Ethnic Media Briefing

Spotting and Avoiding Scams in Our Communities

WHEN:

Wednesday, June 13, 2018 11 am - 1 pm
(light lunch to be served)

WHERE:

Lucile H. Bluford Branch Public Library
3050 Prospect Avenue
Kansas City, MO 64128

WHO:

- Todd Kossow, Director, Midwest Region, FTC
- Kati Daffan, Assistant Director, Marketing Practices, FTC
- Lynn M. Stoppy, Assistant Attorney General, Missouri Attorney General's Office
- Jon Trotter, Assistant Attorney General, Kansas Attorney General's Office
- Marilyn Harp, Executive Director, Kansas Legal Services

WHY:

Every year, scammers defraud our communities of hundreds of millions of dollars by selling fake services and worthless products for everything from housing and health to debt collection, jobs and education. People might not feel comfortable reporting fraud when they have experienced it, but talking about scams is vital. Our briefing will bring together law enforcement officials, community advocates and consumers to talk about the scams that are on the rise and what people can do to protect themselves and their neighbors.
