

The Federal Trade Commission, the OK Attorney General's Office, AARP Oklahoma, and Ethnic Media Services invite you to a Media & Community Stakeholder Roundtable

Spotting and Avoiding Scams Targeting Diverse Communities in Oklahoma

WHEN :

Thursday, March 7, 2019, 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM CST
Light lunch to be served

WHERE :

AARP, 126 N. Bryant Ave, Edmond, OK 73034

WHO :

- Dama Brown Director, Southwest Region, FTC
- Jennifer Leach Acting Associate Director, Consumer and Business Education, FTC
- Stacy Morey Chief of the Consumer Protection Unit, Office of the Oklahoma AG
- Sean Voskuhl State Director, AARP Oklahoma
- Kathleen Kruck Legal Aid Services of Oklahoma
- Elaine Dodd Executive Vice President, Fraud Division, Oklahoma Bankers Association

WHY :

Every year, scammers defraud the public of hundreds of millions of dollars by selling fake services and worthless products – for everything from housing and health to debt collection, jobs and education. Meanwhile, imposters threaten people with jail if they fail to pay non-existent fines or fees. Our briefing will bring together FTC officials, AARP Oklahoma, representatives from the OK AG's office, law enforcement officers, legal aid providers, community advocates and victims of fraud to talk about what the media and civic leaders can do to protect themselves and better inform people.
