- Nancy J. Schindler, Associate Commissioner of Legal and Regulatory Compliance Division, New York City Department of Consumer Affairs
- Claire Rosenzweig, President & CEO, Better Business Bureau Serving Metropolitan New York
- Victims of scams (storytellers)

WHY :

Every year scammers defraud our communities of hundreds of millions of dollars by selling fake services and worthless products for everything from immigration, housing and health to debt collection, jobs and education.

People are often too scared to report fraud when they have been victimized by it. Our briefing will bring together law enforcement officials, community advocates and consumers to talk about the types of fraud that are on the rise and what people can do to protect themselves and their neighbors.
