

---

Questions for Guided Reading 2

1. What do phone card companies use your PIN for?

---

2. How do you know how many minutes are left on your phone card?

---

3. What are some things that phone card companies charge fees for?

---

---

---

---

4. What are some things you can say about good phone cards?

---

---

---

---

5. What does the expression “the most minutes for your money” mean?

---

6. What does the expression “high fees can cost you time you thought you had” mean?

---

7. What are some ways to save money on phone cards?

---

---

---

---

---

Questions for Guided Reading 2 - Answer Key

1. What do phone card companies use your PIN for?

To track how many minutes you use

---

2. How do you know how many minutes are left on your phone card?

You hear a recorded message after you enter your PIN

---

3. What are some things that phone card companies charge fees for?

Dialing the access number

---

Calling a mobile phone

---

Ending the call (hanging up)

---

[Other answers that learners may provide from their own knowledge]

---

4. What are some things you can say about good phone cards?

Low fees to make calls

---

No maintenance fee

---

[Other answers that learners may provide from their own knowledge]

---

5. What does the expression “the most minutes for your money” mean?

Low or no fees, so the money goes toward phone calls

---

6. What does the expression “high fees can cost you time you thought you had” mean?

You have fewer minutes than you expected because of the high fees

---

7. What are some ways to save money on phone cards?

Buy cards for low amounts, like $2

---

Be sure you can use all the minutes before the expiration date

---

Be sure you can get help from the company if something goes wrong

---

[Other answers that learners may provide from their own knowledge]

---