A Story About a Car Title

What the Website Says	What Happens in Our Story
You go to see a lender to borrow money.
You show the lender your application, your car, your car title, and your ID.
Sometimes lenders require an extra copy of your car keys or make you buy a roadside service plan.
The lender gives you the money and keeps the title to your car.
When it is time to repay the loan, you pay the lender the amount you borrowed – plus a monthly fee.
