
What Should You Say?

You are meeting with a person who says she can help you with immigration. The person says some things. What do you say in response?

- 1. She says: "I am a notary public, so I can give you legal advice."

You say: _____

- 2. She says: "Pay me $500 and I will give you all the government forms."

You say: _____

- 3. She says: "Just sign this blank form and I will fill it in for you later."

You say: _____

- 4. She says: "This form has some wrong information, but don't worry. Sign it now, and I will fix it later."

You say: _____

- 5. She says: "I will keep your birth certificate until you get your green card."

You say: _____

What Should You Say? - Answer Key

You are meeting with a person who says she can help you with immigration. The person says some things. What do you say in response?

1. She says: "I am a notary public, so I can give you legal advice."

You say: A notary public cannot give legal advice.

2. She says: "Pay me $500 and I will give you all the government forms."

You say: No. Government forms are free.

3. She says: "Just sign this blank form and I will fill it in for you later."

You say: No. I will not sign a blank form.

4. She says: "This form has some wrong information, but don't worry. Sign it now, and I will fix it later."

You say: No. I will not sign it until it is correct.

5. She says: "I will keep your birth certificate until you get your green card."

You say: No. I will keep my birth certificate.